

Adopted name Sarcee Mountain April 20, 1940

Description a double-peaked ridge, whose higher eastern summit is about 8,300 feet high, which lies between North Fork, Belly River and the Canadian boundary, Glacier National Park, Glacier County, Mont.

Names	Authorities
Named for the Sarcee	or Sarci
the eastern border	Indians of Canada who have frequently hunted along of the park.

Local usage

Submitted by National Park Service
Date April 17, 1939

Decision of Executive Committee
Sarcee Mountain

WLS EEG K.T.A.