

699.55

U. S. GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

See work card

Approved

Feb. 3, 1926.

Adopted name } LEMBERT Dome;

a mountain, about 9400 ft. high, Tuolumne Co., Calif., and west slope Sierra Nevada, north-east side Tuolumne Meadows and junction of Names Dana and Lyell forks Tuolumne, near lat. 37° 53', long. 119° 21'.

Lambert Dome - - U.S.G.S. Mt. Lyell sheet, 1901-1922.

Lambert " - - "Unquestionably correct", Sierra Club Com., Dec. 2, 1925. John Baptist Lambert took up a homestead quarter section in Tuolumne Meadows in 1885, built a cabin and lived there, was murdered in the winter of 1896-97, and homestead passed to his brother Jacob Lambert, who sold it.

" " - - - Recommended by Sierra Club Committee Dec. 2, 1925.

Local usage

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Submitted by Sierra Club,

Lambert

Date Dec. 17, 1925.

Lambert

This card prepared by James McCormick.