

647.17

Adopted name

Donaldson

See work card

Approved
April 2, 1924.

Thing named

mountain, (4215 ft. high), three-quarters of a mile southwest of Mount Seward, in the Seward mountains, Adirondack Mts., Franklin Co., New York.

Names.

Authorities.

Mount Donaldson

Harrietstown

Adopted by the New York State Board of Geographic Names, in memory of the late Alfred Lee Donaldson. After the late Alfred Lee Donaldson, 1866-1923, of Saranac Lake, author of "A History of the Adirondacks" published in 1921.

North Mt. Seward

So known here before - see Donaldson's book.

Mt. North Seward

Local usage

Submitted by New York State Board of Geographic Names

Date February 25, 1924

This card prepared by G.S. Bresnahan

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Donaldson

[Handwritten initials and signatures]

U.S. GEOGRAPHIC BOARD