

See work card

663.60

DIVISION OF GEOGRAPHIC NAMES

Adopted name Quilby Creek

Thing named and location a small stream tributary to Bodka Creek from the south in sec. 26, T.21 N., R.41 W., St. Stephens Meridian, Sumter County, Ala.

APPROVED
January 15, 1937

Names

Authorities

Local Usage
Quilby Creek

Reported by G. A. Swenson, Bur. of Chem. & Soils, who quotes Dr. R. D. Spratt of Livingston, Ala., as saying that it is from the Choctaw Koi ai vlbi, meaning "panther killed there."

Submitted by U.S. Bur. of Chemistry & Soils

Recommendation of Executive Committee
Quilby Creek

Date February 15, 1936

This card prepared by G.C.M.