

Date of decision
Nov. 4, 1938Adopted name Vermillion Creek

See work card

Description a creek which rises in Red Vermillion Township south of the town of Corning, Nemaha County, and flows southwest and south to join Kansas River in Belvue Township, Pottawatomie County, Kansas. (Not Red Vermillion Creek nor Vermillion River.)

Names

Authorities

|                        |  |
|------------------------|--|
| Red Vermillion Creek   | 1866-7 - New Sec. Map of Kansas by W.J. Keeler.      |
| " " "                  | 1873 - Coltons New Sect. Map of Kansas.              |
| Red Vermillion Creek   | 1894 - U.S.G.S. Seneca quad.-repr.1932.              |
| (no. of Onaga)         |  |
| Vermillion River       | 1894 - U.S.G.S. Wamego quad.-repr.1925.              |
| (south of Onaga)       |  |
| Vermillion River       | )  |
| (south of Onaga)       | )  |
| Vermillion Creek       | ) 1905- Standard Atlas of Pottawatomie Co., comp. by |
| (from source to Onaga) | ) Geo. A. Ogle & Co.                                 |
| Vermillion Creek       |  |
| (south of Onaga)       | 1907 - R.R. Map Kansas by State Bd. of R.R. Comm.    |
| Red Vermillion Creek   | 1922 - U.S.G.S. base map of Kansas repr.1937.        |

over

Submitted by U. S. Geological SurveyDate July 21, 1937Card by CG

Decision of Executive Committee

Vermillion Creek*W. L. J.*

Vermillion Creek 1930 - Map of Kansas, pub. by Kelly Map Co.
Red Vermillion Creek
(South of Onaga) 1935 - Rand McNally Comm. Atlas.

Local Usage:

Vermillion Creek . . . County Engineer, July 11, 1938.
" " Secretary, Community Club, Onaga, July 1938.
" " Postmaster, Onaga, July 12, 1938.
Red Vermillion Creek Postmaster, Havensville, July 1938.