

697.37

UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

Adopted name Blum*See work card*

APPROVED

Thing named and location peak (Mount Blum), Whatcom County,

Dec. 2, 1931

Washington, approximately in unsurveyed sec. 27,T. 38 N., R. 10 E., Mount Baker National Forest. (Not Bald.)

Names

Authorities

Mount Blum

air-plane pilot,
 Named in honor of John Blum, who accomplished exceptional work during 1930-1931 in flying over many of the forests in the North Pacific Region and particularly over the Mount Baker National Forest on fire patrol, and who was killed in 1931 in an aeroplane accident near Snoqualmie Pass.

Local usage

Change of name recommended by the Regional Names Committee and also by the Supervisor of the Mount Baker National Forest, and his superiors in the Forest Service.

(OVER)

Submitted by U. S. Forest Service

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Blum

Date 11-25-31This card prepared by John J. Cameron

Bald Mountain

1901-Milroy & Eagan-Washington

"

1906-Adams-Whatcom Co.

"

1924-G.L.O.-Washington

"

1927-Knoll-Washington