

Adopted name. Seaford.

Description a village at the narrowest part of Crab Neck, about 3 1/2 miles southwest of the mouth of York River, in lat. 37°11'45" N., long. 76°26' ~~00~~ W., York County, Va. (Not Crab Neck nor Crabneck.)

Names

Crabneck

Crab Neck

Seaford

"

"

"

"

"

Authorities

1904 - U.S.G.S.Bull.232, Gaz. of Va., by Gannett

1907 - " " " " Hampton quad. - repr. 1932

1933 - Post Route Map - also 1939

1936 - Postal Guide - also 1939

1936 - Rand McNally

1937 - U.S.C. & G.S. Coast Pilot, Sec. C., p.181,
("formerly called Crabneck")

1937 - U.S.C. & G.S. chart 494, print 6/24/37

1937 - " " " " " " 1222, print 1/10/38

Local Usage

Seaford

"It was originally named Crab Neck and was changed to Seaford a number of years ago" - P.M., Seaford, Nov. Co. Clerk, York County, 11/28/39 1939.

Seaford

Decision of Executive Committee

Submitted by U.S.Coast & Geodetic SurveySeafordDate December 22, 1938W L G J KTACard by CG