

UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

605

Adopted
name }

Thing named }

Approved
May 2, 1923

Names

Authorities

Mt. Bagot

Named for Sir Charles Bagot, British Ambassador to Russia and a Plenipotentiary at St. Petersburg in 1822 in negotiations regarding the Alaskan boundary. - Lawrence Martin.

Local usage

correction in description by J. N. Melville on proof.

Submitted by

Lawrence Martin

Date

April 28, 1923.

This card prepared by

C. S. Sloane.

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Approved by Board
C.S.