

UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

605

Adopted name } ELUSIVE

A P P R O V E D

Thing named } creek, northwestern Alaska on the south bank of Utukok River, near lat. 69° 25', long. 160°.

MAY 6 1925

Names

Authorities

Elusive Creek -- Proposed by the U.S.G .S.Expedition,1924, because of the deceptive appearance of the valley and the difficulty of determining its junction with Utukok River.

Local usage

?

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Submitted by U.S.Geological Survey

Elusive

Date March 19, 1925.

This card prepared by James McCormick

JWB
WCB
JMB
LM